

THE EDGE CITY CHRONICLE

About The Chron

Since late 2001, The Edge City Chronicle has been striving to provide its readers and viewers* with the best that politics, music, movies, sports, leisure & travel have to offer. We have done this by aspiring to an integrity that the mass media at-large has forsaken.

* - So many publications discriminate against the illiterate. Not us. We put in lots of pretty pictures and diagrams, just like the USA Today, so everyone can join in the newstime fun.

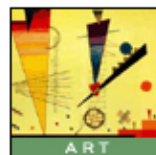

Community-centric like a motherfucker

Because of its community-focused enhancements, The Edge City Chronicle generates a level of interaction that isn't found with major news & entertainment outlets. The Chronicle allows its users to comment directly on every story, and share their own views with the rest of the readership. This invaluable resource gives our users an unparalleled basis on which to form opinions.
